3 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4 1. This is a civil rights action arising from DEFENDANTS' interference and

15 LEGAL FRAMEWORK

16 California Law

17 15. Under California common law, an assault occurs where: (1) the defendant acted 18 with the intent to cause harmful or offensive contact, or threatened to touch plaintiff in a harmful
19 or offensive manner, (2) the plaintiff reasonably believed he was about to be touched in a 20 harmful or offensive manner or it reasonably appeared to plaintiff that the defendant was about 21 to carry out the threat, (3) the plaintiff did not consent to the defendant's conduct, (4) the 22 plaintiff was harmed, and (5) defendant's conduct was a substantial factor in causing that harm.
23 See So v. Shin, 212 Cal.App.4th 652, 668–669 (2013); see also Judicial Council of California
24 Civil Jury Instructions No. 1301.

25 16. Under California common law, a battery occurs where: (1) the defendant touched 26 the plaintiff or caused the plaintiff to be touched with the intent to harm or offend the plaintiff, 27 (2) the plaintiff did not consent to the touching, (3) the plaintiff was harmed or offended by the 28

1 defendant's conduct, and (4) a reasonable person in the plaintiff's position would have been 2 offended by the touching. See So v. Shin, 212 Cal.App.4th 652, 669 (2013); see also Judicial 3 Council of California Civil Jury Instructions No. 1300.

4 17. According to the Tom Bane Civil Rights Act, California Civil Code, section
 5 52.1, "[a]ny individual whose exercise or enjoyment of rights secured by the Constitution or laws
 6 of the United States, or of rights secured by the Constitution or laws of this state, has been 7 interfered with, or attempted to be interfered with," "by threat, intimidation, or coercion" "may 8 institute and prosecute in their own name and on their own behalf a civil action for damages,
 9 including, but not limited to, damages under Section 52, injunctive relief, and other appropriate
 10 equitable relief to protect the peaceable exercise or enjoyment of the right or rights secured, 11 including appropriate equitable and declaratory relief to eliminate a pattern or practice of 12 conduct." Civ. Code, sec. 52.1(b), (c).

13 18. One such right secured by the laws of California is "the right of protection from 14 bodily restraint or harm, from personal insult, from defamation, and from injury to his personal 15 relations." Civ. Code, sec. 43.

16 19. Additionally, the Ralph Civil Rights Act of 1976, California Civil Code, section 17 51.7, requires that "[a]ll persons within the jurisdiction of this state have the right to be free from 18 any violence, or intimidation by threat of violence, committed against their persons or property
 19 because of political affiliation, . . . or position in a labor dispute, or because another person
 20 perceives them to have one or more of those characteristics. Civ. Code, sec. 51.7(b)(1).

21 20. The Legislature explicitly recognized that the "particular bases of 22 discrimination" in California Civil Code, section 51.7, subd. (b)(1) are "illustrative rather than 23 restrictive." Civ. Code, sec. 51.7(b)(1).

24 21. "Intimidation by threat of violence" as used in California Civil Code, section
 25 51.7, "includes, but is not limited to, making or threatening to make a claim or report to a peace 26 officer or law enforcement agency that falsely alleges that another person has engaged in 27 unlawful activity or in an activity that requires law enforcement intervention, knowing that the 28 claim or report is false, or with reckless disregard for the truth or falsity of the claim or report.”

Civ. Code, sec. 51.7(b)(2).

22. Under the California Constitution, Article I, section 2, “[e]very person may freely speak, write and publish his or her sentiments on all subjects.” Cal. Const. art I, sec. 2.

Federal Law

23. The First Amendment to the United States Constitution provides that “Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances.” U.S. Const. amend. I.

24. The First Amendment is made applicable to the states through the Fourteenth Amendment.

25. Under 42 USC § 1983, a party may seek injunctive relief against a party who, under color of law of any state, subjects any person within the jurisdiction of the United States to a deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the Constitution and other laws.

26. In addition to protection from state actors interfering with a person’s free speech rights, a private entity may also violate the First Amendment and be considered a state actor under several circumstances, including where the private entity performs a traditional, exclusive public function, where the government forces the private entity to act, or when the government and private entity jointly act in concert with one another.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

27. PLAINTIFFS reallege each and every paragraph in this complaint as if fully set forth here.

28. PLAINTIFFS JOSEPH CUVIELLO and DENIZ BOLBOL are animal rights activists who have been active in advocating for the humane treatment of animals since 1986 and 2000, respectively. PLAINTIFFS are the founders of, and organizers for, “Humanity Through Education,” a grassroots animal rights non-profit located in San Mateo, California.

PLAINTIFFS’ advocacy is mainly targeted at educating patrons who frequent businesses that use

1 animals for entertainment and includes holding signs and banners, offering informational flyers,
2 and showing video on a large-screen television. PLAINTIFFS' speech also includes video 3 recording the treatment of animals for whom they advocate. PLAINTIFFS use their video to 4 educate the public and provide news media information about the abuse and mistreatment of 5 animals. PLAINTIFFS' demonstrations are always peaceful and without interference.

6         29. PLAINTIFFS have demonstrated at or near the entrance of numerous public
7 gathering facilities in California including the Oakland Arena, the San Jose Arena, the Cow
8 Palace in Daly City, the Stockton Arena, the Fresno Arena, the Santa Clara County Fairgrounds,
9 the Nevada County Fairgrounds, the Santa Cruz County Fairgrounds, the San Mateo County
10 Fairgrounds, the Contra Costa County Fairgrounds, the San Benito County Fairgrounds, the 11 Sonoma County Fairgrounds, the San Joaquin County Fairgrounds, the Napa Town and Country
12 Fairgrounds, Cal Expo in Sacramento, the Richmond Auditorium Civic Center, the San 13 Francisco Zoo, Six Flags Discovery Kingdom in Vallejo, Livermore Rodeo Arena and Rowell
14 Ranch Rodeo Park in Castro Valley.

15         30. PLAINTIFFS are especially concerned about documenting and disseminating 16 information about the cruel and inhumane treatment of animals in rodeos, like those who suffer
17 during rodeo events hosted by DEFENDANTS at the Rowell Ranch Rodeo Park. Animals used 18 in rodeos are subjected to roping, prodding, kicking, whipping, spur-raking and ear- and- tail
19 twisting and bucking straps, all causing pain, fear and stress. The pain and fear of animals is 20 exploited as a form of entertainment.

21         31. PLAINTIFFS have successfully filed lawsuits for injunctive relief and damages
22 against the owners and/or managers of some of the above-listed facilities, and individual police 23 officers working at the facilities, to remedy violations of their constitutionally protected right to 24 free speech and to have their constitutional right upheld and protected while demonstrating at the 25 facilities.

26         32. PLAINTIFFS' speech and association is on matters of great public concern
27 locally, nationally, and internationally—the abuse and mistreatment of animals by circuses,
28 amusement parks, rodeos, and other “entertainment” entities.

33. The Rowell Ranch Rodeo Park is a publicly owned special event facility that is owned, operated, and maintained by DEFENDANT HARD. The facility can be rented for rodeos, special events, and picnics.

34. In 1995, PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO was demonstrating with other activists at the Bill Pickett Invitational Rodeo at the Rowell Ranch Rodeo Park, and there was an incident regarding interference with the activists' free speech rights. Baron Miller, an attorney colleague of PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO, wrote a letter to DEFENDANT HARD regarding the incident. On July 21, 1995, HARD responded by writing a letter to Lu Vason, President of the Bill Pickett Invitational Rodeo, informing him that the Rowell Ranch Rodeo Park "is public property and groups such as that represented by Mr. Miller, have a right to make known their beliefs by distributing leaflets or posting signs."

35. PLAINTIFFS JOSEPH CUVIELLO and DENIZ BOLBOL have been demonstrating against rodeos at the Rowell Ranch Rodeo Park intermittently from 1988 to 2022 and 2018-2022, respectively.

36. PLAINTIFFS have always stood near the entrance to the rodeo and demonstrated without causing interference or incident.

37. In 2022, the Rowell Ranch Rodeo event occurred over a three-day period from May 20 to 22, 2022, and DEFENDANT ROWELL RANCH RODEO, INC. was responsible for managing and operating the rodeo event at the Rowell Ranch Rodeo Park.

38. Each of the incidents complained of herein were video recorded by PLAINTIFFS.

Events Of May 20, 2022

39. On May 20, 2022, at approximately 6:00 pm, PLAINTIFFS arrived at the Rowell Ranch Rodeo Park in Castro Valley, California to attend a demonstration they organized, through Humanity Through Education, to protest the use of animals in rodeos. This was the first day of three days of scheduled demonstrations against the Rowell Ranch Rodeo.

40. Upon walking into the parking lot PLAINTIFFS noticed a cordoned off area near the vehicle entrance that had a sign which read "Free Speech Area." This area was far from the

1 pedestrian entrance where people parking in the lot would be entering the rodeo. PLAINTIFFS
 2 viewed this area as ineffective for getting their message to patrons, because PLAINTIFFS would 3 not be able to quietly speak with patrons and hand them leaflets and patrons would not be able to 4 see PLAINTIFFS' banners and signs. Accordingly, PLAINTIFFS continued on to the area near 5 the front entrance, where they had always demonstrated in previous years without incident.
 6 PLAINTIFFS then proceeded to hold their banner and signs and pass out leaflets.

7 41. Shortly thereafter an employee of DEFENDANT ROWELL RANCH RODEO, 8 INC., who PLAINTIFFS will refer to as DOE DEFENDANT 1 in this Complaint and who was 9 wearing a badge that read "All Access Credential 7", approached PLAINTIFFS and told them
 10 that DEFENDANT ROWELL RANCH RODEO, INC. had set up a "Free Speech Area" and that 11 PLAINTIFFS had to demonstrate in that "Free Speech Area." PLAINTIFFS told DOE
 12 DEFENDANT 1 to call the police if he had a problem, and DOE DEFENDANT 1 then tried to 13 grab the end of the banner PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO was holding. PLAINTIFFS told 14 him he was not allowed to touch them and reiterated he should call the police. DOE
 15 DEFENDANT 1 then told PLAINTIFFS he could block their banner and proceeded to stand in 16 front of PLAINTIFFS' banner to obstruct its view. DOE DEFENDANT 1 then called the police 17 and intentionally falsely told the dispatcher PLAINTIFFS were blocking the parking lot and the 18 entrance. The police arrived approximately five minutes later, and upon arrival, PLAINTIFF
 19 DENIZ BOLBOL observed and video recorded DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD hugging
 20 a woman who appeared to be affiliated with the rodeo. DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD 21 was in his Alameda County Sheriff's uniform and driving an Alameda County Sheriff's vehicle.

22 42. Shortly thereafter, four police officers—three males and one female—23 approached PLAINTIFFS, and one of the male officers, who this Complaint will refer to as 24 "Officer 1," told PLAINTIFFS that he was with the Sheriff's Office and just wanted to say hello.
 25 Officer 1 said he and his fellow officers would be "hanging out" there and acknowledged that 26 PLAINTIFFS' demonstration was protected as free speech. He told PLAINTIFFS that the 27 officers "get it" and that, "it's totally cool." PLAINTIFFS told Officer 1 they had no intention of 28 blocking anyone, and Officer 1 responded by saying, "All we ask is that everyone play nice."

1 Officer 1 then told PLAINTIFFS that DEFENDANT ROWELL RANCH RODEO, INC. wanted
2 PLAINTIFFS to go to the “Free Speech Area.” PLAINTIFFS told Officer 1 they knew of the 3 Rodeo’s request, but PLAINTIFFS reiterated that they would not be using the “Free Speech
4 Area.” Officer 1 indicated he was fine with that.

5 43. Moments later, DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD again told PLAINTIFFS
6 about the “Free Speech Area.” DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD told PLAINTIFFS that if 7 they were to stay where they were, they would have to “keep it peaceful.” PLAINTIFFS 8 responded that they are always peaceful, and all four police officers walked away.

9 44. A short time later, DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD and DEFENDANT
10 KEVIN HART approached PLAINTIFFS. DEFENDANT HART was wearing a blue shirt that 11 read “K. Hart, Public Safety Manager.” A badge appeared on DEFENDANT HART’s blue shirt
12 that read “Ranger, Hayward Area Recreation and Park District.” Working in concert to enforce
13 DEFENDANT ROWELL RANCH RODEO, INC.’S free speech policy, DEFENDANT HART
14 and DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD threatened to arrest PLAINTIFFS if they did not 15 move to the “Free Speech Area” set up by DEFENDANT ROWELL RANCH RODEO, INC..
16 PLAINTIFFS felt intimidated and coerced but refused to move to the “Free Speech Area,” as 17 these new threats of arrest contradicted not only what DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD and 18 Officer 1 had just told PLAINTIFFS.

19 45. DEFENDANT HART continued to harass PLAINTIFFS. He told PLAINTIFFS 20 they had to go to the designated “Free Speech Area,” and he said, “Failure to do so will not be 21 good.” PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO asked DEFENDANT HART what would happen if 22 they didn’t go, and DEFENDANT HART said, “You’ll have to figure that out.”

23 46. Based on his many years of experiences with law enforcement, PLAINTIFF
24 JOSEPH CUVIELLO understood that DEFENDANT HART was suggesting that PLAINTIFFS
25 could be arrested as a form of intimidation and coercion so that PLAINTIFFS would voluntarily
26 acquiesce and give up their right to free speech near the entrance. Because PLAINTIFF JOSEPH 27 CUVIELLO did not know if DEFENDANT HART was a law enforcement officer, he turned to 28 DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD, who was working in concert with DEFENDANT HART

1 and asked him if he would arrest PLAINTIFFS if they didn't comply with the request.
 2 DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD said, "You could be arrested." Because DEFENDANT
 3 DEPUTY MAYFIELD was threatening PLAINTIFFS with arrest if they did not move, and 4 because PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO did not want to be arrested, PLAINTIFF JOSEPH 5 CUVIELLO told DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD he did not want to get arrested and 6 asked him to let him know ahead of time if he was going to arrest him so he could leave.
 7 DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD told PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO he was not
 8 required to tell him whether he would arrest him or not, and continued to threaten PLAINTIFFS 9 with arrest by telling them if they did not move, they "could be" arrested and maintaining that 10 arrest was a "possibility." PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO told DEFENDANT DEPUTY 11 MAYFIELD he needed to call his watch commander.

12 47. PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO then explained that this is a public park, and 13 unless there was a significant interest in keeping PLAINTIFFS from demonstrating near the 14 entrance, he could not arrest PLAINTIFFS for being there. Based on his years of experience with 15 police at protests, PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO understood DEFENDANT DEPUTY 16 MAYFIELD's threats of arrest were an intimidation tactic meant to scare PLAINTIFFS and 17 coerce them into relinquishing their right to engage in free speech activity near the rodeo
 18 entrance, the most effective free speech location at the Rowell Ranch Rodeo Park.

19 48. DEFENDANT HART, standing with DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD,
 20 told PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO, "You don't have too much of a choice." PLAINTIFF
 21 JOSEPH CUVIELLO responded that he does have a choice, and DEFENDANT HART replied, 22 "I'm asking you nicely." PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO responded, "I don't give up my 23 rights because someone asks nicely." DEFENDANT HART then asked PLAINTIFF JOSEPH 24 CUVIELLO if he was refusing to leave and PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO responded, "Yes, 25 I am." DEFENDANT HART then asked PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO'S colleague Mike 26 Sage, if he was refusing to leave. PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO told Mr. Sage he could 27 leave if he wanted, and Mr. Sage asked PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO what he planned to 28

1 do. PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO told Mr. Sage he would not be leaving. Mr. Sage then
2 told DEFENDANT HART he, too, would not be leaving.

3 49. DEFENDANT HART then asked PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL if she was 4 refusing to leave, and she said, “I’m not going to leave.” DEFENDANT HART then asked other
5 activists if they were refusing to leave, and they confirmed they would stay. At this point
6 PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO saw DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD on his cellphone.

7 50. After being on his cellphone for approximately five minutes, DEFENDANT
8 DEPUTY MAYFIELD spoke with DEFENDANT HART and the other police officers for 9 approximately three minutes. During this time, DOE DEFENDANT 1 approached Mr. Sage,
10 who was holding a sign and handing out leaflets, and stood right in front of him. PLAINTIFF
11 DENIZ BOLBOL told DOE DEFENDANT 1 that he was not allowed to touch Mr. Sage. Mr.
12 Sage told PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL that DOE DEFENDANT 1 had pushed him. DOE
13 DEFENDANT 1 then walked away.

14 51. Shortly thereafter, DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD approached
15 PLAINTIFFS and told them to stay out of the walkway and not block anybody, and PLAINTIFF
16 JOSEPH CUVIELLO told him, “You know that’s what we’re doing.” The “walkway” referred to 17 by DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD is a combination roadway/walkway mostly used by 18 patrons to walk to the entrance from the parking lot or street. On rare occasions, a vehicle will 19 also use the walkway to enter or exit through the rodeo entrance.

20 52. DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD then attempted to tell another activist he 21 couldn’t be in the walkway to leaflet patrons, who were entering the rodeo park via the walkway.
22 PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO told DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD, “We’re not 23 blocking anybody, and you know that,” and “You just want to make a problem.” DEFENDANT
24 DEPUTY MAYFIELD again told the activist not to stand in the walkway. PLAINTIFF JOSEPH
25 CUVIELLO told the activist, “As long as you’re not blocking anybody you’re fine.”
26 DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD walked away, and PLAINTIFFS proceeded to 27 demonstrate with their colleagues near the front entrance, standing in the walkway and leafleting
28 patrons as they passed by, without interference or incident that evening.

53. Around 7:15 p.m., the number of patrons entering the front entrance waned, so PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL and one of her colleagues went to the back entrance to distribute informational leaflets to patrons entering there. Shortly thereafter PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO and the rest of the demonstrators also went to the back entrance.

54. PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL and Mr. Sage stood near the entrance holding signs and leafleting; they stood at this location in order to easily offer flyers to patrons. PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO stood about 30 feet in front of the entrance, near a tree, holding a sign and leafleting near a banner being held by two other activists.

55. At one point, DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD and an Alameda County Sheriff's officer, whom PLAINTIFFS will refer to as "Officer 2" in this Complaint, approached PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL, stood in front of her sign to obstruct people's view of her sign, and repeatedly told her she was blocking ingress to the back entrance. DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD asked PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL to move.

56. PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL told DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD she was not blocking anyone and that he needed to stop harassing her. DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD continued to tell PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL she was blocking the entrance. PLAINTIFFS' video recording of this interaction clearly shows PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL was not blocking the entrance.

57. PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL told DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD he doesn't understand the law, that he unlawfully threatened to arrest PLAINTIFFS before, and that he was wrong then just as he was wrong now. DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD continued to tell PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL she was blocking the entrance, and she told him he was harassing her and blocking her sign. PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL walked around DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD, so the public could see her sign, and she again told him to stop harassing her.

58. DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD and Officer 2 then left PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL and approached PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO. DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD told PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO that he wanted to ensure the activists did

1 not block the bathroom. PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO told him no one was blocking the
 2 bathroom, and it was freely accessible. In fact, PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO video
 3 recorded people using the bathroom while DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD was standing
 4 in front of PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL telling her she was blocking it.

5 59. DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD told PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO
 6 that people had to divert around the activists, and PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO told him,
 7 “That’s free speech. So what if people have to walk around them, they also have to walk around
 8 patrons who are standing there. It’s not against the law for people to have to walk around 9 someone engaged in free speech, the caselaw makes that clear.”

10 60. DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD continued to harass PLAINTIFF
 11 JOSEPH CUVIELLO about blocking access. PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO responded that 12 DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD was acting like there was a problem when obviously
 13 there was none. PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO and DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD 14 continued to converse more about free speech and its parameters.

 16 took a group photo.

17 62. PLAINTIFFS’ demonstration ended at approximately 7:40 p.m..

18 Events Of May 21, 2022

19 63. On May 21, 2022, PLAINTIFFS again attended a demonstration at Rowell 20 Ranch Rodeo Park, arriving around noon at the front entrance. This was the second day of the 21 planned three-day demonstration against the Rowell Ranch Rodeo. PLAINTIFFS and their 22 colleagues demonstrated without incident at the front entrance for approximately 30 minutes and 23 then headed to the back entrance, as they had done the night before.

24 64. As PLAINTIFFS passed through the gate heading toward the back entrance, they
 25 observed several employees of DEFENDANT ROWELL RANCH RODEO, INC. were present
 26 and now wearing yellow reflective vests. A white male, approximately sixty years old wearing, a 27 yellow vest, whom PLAINTIFFS will refer to as DOE DEFENDANT 2 throughout this 28 Complaint, attempted to block PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO from proceeding toward the back entrance by stepping in front of him and telling him he needed a ticket to the rodeo. PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL told DOE DEFENDANT 2 not to touch PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO and DOE DEFENDANT 2 then turned his attention to PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL. He physically stepped in front of her and started pushing her and attempted to use his body to block her from walking toward the back entrance while yelling she needed a ticket to the rodeo. DOE DEFENDANT 2 also repeatedly shouted, “Out.” PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL tried to walk around DOE DEFENDANT 2, but he would continually step in front of her and use his body to stop her. PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL told DOE DEFENDANT 2 to stop touching her, and as he repeatedly stepped in front of her, pushing his body into hers, he told her, “You’re touching me.”

65. After about 15 seconds, DOE DEFENDANT 2 stopped blocking PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL, and PLAINTIFFS proceeded to the back entrance. They soon encountered a female employee or agent of DEFENDANT ROWELL RANCH RODEO, INC., whom who told PLAINTIFFS they needed a ticket. PLAINTIFFS told her to call the police if she has a problem and continued to walk by her to the back entrance.

66. At the back entrance, PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL held a sign and leafleted near the entrance, where DOE DEFENDANT 1 was also standing. PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO held a banner with a colleague near a tree, where an electric utility vehicle was parked.

67. At some point, PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO moved the banner away from the tree and positioned it behind the electric utility vehicle for better public visibility. A short time later, DOE DEFENDANT 1 approached PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO and told him to not touch his electric utility vehicle with the banner, and PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO moved away from the vehicle to comply. Then DOE DEFENDANT 1 told PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO he had to move and got into the electric utility vehicle. PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO was not blocking DOE DEFENDANT 1’s vehicle, as DOE DEFENDANT 1 could have easily driven forward to leave. An unidentified woman told PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO he had to move, so DOE DEFENDANT 1 could move his vehicle. As PLAINTIFF

JOSEPH CUVIELLO was telling the woman that DOE DEFENDANT 1 could drive the vehicle forward, DOE DEFENDANT 1 backed up the electric utility vehicle and rammed it into PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO. PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO got angry and began yelling and cussing, “That’s assault with a deadly weapon.” DOE DEFENDANT 1 smiled and told PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO, “I asked you to move.” PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO told DOE DEFENDANT 1, “You’re not allowed to run into people if they don’t move;” DOE DEFENDANT 1 said again, “I asked you to move,” and drove off.

73. At all material times, each DEFENDANT was engaged in unlawful activity, resulting in the interference and attempted interference of PLAINTIFFS' constitutional rights and other harm.

84. This court has the power to remedy DEFENDANTS' violations of California common law through compensatory and punitive damages, and without this court's intervention, PLAINTIFFS' injuries caused by DOE DEFENDANTS 1 and 2 will continue to be unaddressed.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Battery

(PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO Against DOE DEFENDANT 1 and PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL Against DOE DEFENDANT 2)

85. PLAINTIFFS reallege each paragraph of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

86. Under California common law, a battery occurs where: (1) the defendant touched the plaintiff or caused the plaintiff to be touched with the intent to harm or offend the plaintiff,

(2) the plaintiff did not consent to the touching, (3) the plaintiff was harmed or offended by the defendant's conduct, and (4) a reasonable person in the plaintiff's position would have been offended by the touching.

89. The actions of DOE DEFENDANTS 1 and 2 violated PLAINTIFFS' right to be free from battery.

90. As a direct and proximate result of DEFENDANTS' actions PLAINTIFFS sustained injuries and damages as set forth above. Further, PLAINTIFFS claim all damages and penalties allowed by law.

91. This court has the power to remedy DEFENDANTS' violations of California common law through compensatory and punitive damages, and without this court's intervention, PLAINTIFFS' injuries caused by DOE DEFENDANTS 1 and 2 will continue to be unaddressed.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of California Civil Code, section 52.1(c)
Injunctive and Declaratory Relief
(All PLAINTIFFS Against All DEFENDANTS)

92. PLAINTIFFS reallege each paragraph of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

93. “Any individual whose exercise or enjoyment of rights secured by the Constitution or laws of the United States, or of rights secured by the Constitution or laws of this state, has been interfered with, or attempted to be interfered with,” “by threat, intimidation, or coercion” “may institute and prosecute in their own name and on their own behalf a civil action for damages, including, but not limited to, damages under Section 52, injunctive relief, and other appropriate equitable relief to protect the peaceable exercise or enjoyment of the right or rights secured, including appropriate equitable and declaratory relief to eliminate a pattern or practice of conduct.” Civ. Code, sec. 52.1(b), (c).

94. On May 20, 2022, DEFENDANT HART and DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD, working in concert, threatened to arrest PLAINTIFFS if they did not move to the “Free Speech Area.”

95. PLAINTIFFS felt intimidated and coerced but refused to move to the “Free Speech Area,” as these new threats of arrest contradicted what DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD and Officer 1 had just told PLAINTIFFS.

96. DEFENDANT HART continued to harass PLAINTIFFS. He told PLAINTIFFS they had to go to the designated “Free Speech Area,” and he said, “Failure to do so will not be good.”

97. PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO asked DEFENDANT HART what would happen if they didn’t go, and DEFENDANT HART said, “You’ll have to figure that out.”

98. PLAINTIFFS took these statements to mean that that PLAINTIFFS could be arrested as a form of intimidation and coercion so that PLAINTIFFS would voluntarily acquiesce and give up their right to free speech near the entrance.

99. DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD and Officer 2 also approached PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL, stood in front of her sign to obstruct people’s view of her sign, and repeatedly told her she was blocking ingress to the back entrance despite that she was not blocking ingress. DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD repeatedly asked PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL to move despite the fact that PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL was not blocking the entrance.

1           100.     On May 21, 2022, DOE DEFENDANT 2 used threats, intimidation and coercion
2 to attempt to interfere with PLAINTIFF DENIZ BOLBOL'S free speech rights by physically
3 blocking her from accessing the free speech public forum.

4           101.     On May 21, 2022, DOE DEFENDANT 1 drove an electric utility vehicle into
5 PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO's person to interfere with PLAINTIFF exercising his free
6 speech rights as an animal rights activist.

7           102.     By and through such acts, DEFENDANTS have violated PLAINTIFFS' rights
8 under California Civil Code, section 52.1, by interfering or attempting to interfere, by threats,
9 intimidation, or coercion, with the exercise or enjoyment of rights secured by the First 10 Amendment, the Constitution or laws of the State of California, including but not limited to the 11 following clearly-established rights under the California Constitution and laws of the State of 12 California: (a) the right of protection from bodily harm pursuant to California Civil Code, section 13 43 and (b) the right to be free from interference, or retaliation for, their exercise of 14 constitutionally protected rights, including but not limited to speech, press, association,
15 conscience, and beliefs, as secured by the First and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States
16 Constitution and the California Constitution, Article I, Section 2(a).

17           103.     As a direct and proximate result of DEFENDANTS' violation of California Civil 18 Code, section 52.1, PLAINTIFFS sustained injuries and damages as set forth above. Further,
19 PLAINTIFFS claim all damages and penalties allowed by law, including California Civil Code, 20 sections 52 and 52.1, and including costs, treble damages, civil penalties and attorney fees.

21           104.     PLAINTIFFS are entitled to an injunction under California Civil Code, section
22 52.1 to prevent DEFENDANTS from interfering or attempting to interfere, by threats,
23 intimidation, or coercion, with the exercise or enjoyment of rights secured by the First
24 Amendment, the Constitution or laws of the State of California.

25           105.     Absent an injunction from this court, PLAINTIFFS will continue to be 26 irreparably harmed by DEFENDANTS' actions.

27           106.     PLAINTIFFS are entitled to a declaration from this court that DEFENDANTS'
28 actions violated California Civil Code, section 52.1(c).

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of California Civil Code, section 51.7
Injunctive Relief under Code of Civil Procedure, section 526
(All PLAINTIFFS Against DOE DEFENDANT 1)

107. PLAINTIFFS reallege each paragraph of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

108. California Civil Code, section 51.7 requires that “[a]ll persons within the jurisdiction of this state have the right to be free from any violence, or intimidation by threat of violence, committed against their persons or property because of political affiliation.” Civ. Code, sec. 51.7(b)(1).

109. “Intimidation by threat of violence” as used in California Civil Code, section 51.7, “includes, but is not limited to, making or threatening to make a claim or report to a peace officer or law enforcement agency that falsely alleges that another person has engaged in unlawful activity or in an activity that requires law enforcement intervention, knowing that the claim or report is false, or with reckless disregard for the truth or falsity of the claim or report.” Civ. Code, sec. 51.7(b)(2).

110. On May 20, 2022, DOE DEFENDANT 1, in response to PLAINTIFFS exercising their free speech rights as animal rights activists, called the police and falsely stated that PLAINTIFFS were blocking the parking lot and entrance to the rodeo despite DOE DEFENDANT 1 knowing that statement to be false.

111. On May 21, 2022, DOE DEFENDANT 1, in response to PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO exercising his free speech rights as an animal rights activist, drove an electric utility vehicle into PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO.

112. As such, DOE DEFENDANT 1 violated PLAINTIFFS’ right to be free from any violence or threat of violence, or intimidation by threat of violence committed against his person because of PLAINTIFF’s animal rights political affiliation when DOE DEFENDANT 1 falsely reported to the police that PLAINTIFFS were acting unlawfully when exercising their free speech rights and when he drove the electric utility vehicle into PLAINTIFF JOSEPH CUVIELLO, causing him physical distress and harm.

113. As is supported by the facts herein, DOE DEFENDANT 1's actions were motivated by PLAINTIFFS' political affiliations and beliefs.

114. As a direct and proximate result of DEFENDANTS' violation of California Civil Code, section 51.7, PLAINTIFFS sustained injuries and damages as set forth above. Further, PLAINTIFFS claim all damages and penalties allowed by law, including California Civil Code, section 52(b), including costs, punitive damages, and civil penalties.

115. PLAINTIFFS are also entitled to an injunction enjoining DOE DEFENDANT 1 from violating California Civil Code, section 51.7.

116. Absent an injunction, DOE DEFENDANT 1 will be permitted to continue to interfere with PLAINTIFFS' "right to be free from any violence, or intimidation by threat of violence, committed against their persons or property because of political affiliation." Civ. Code, sec. 51.7(b)(1).

117. PLAINTIFFS, who have no intention of ending their demonstrations against rodeos at Rowell Ranch Rodeo Park, will be irreparably harmed without the court's intervention.

118. Monetary damages will only compensate the harm that has been done to PLAINTIFFS in the past, so injunctive relief is necessary to secure their California Civil Code, section 51.7 rights in the future.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

121. No person may deprive or interfere with an individual's rights under California Constitution, Article I, section 2.

122. DEFENDANTS interfered with PLAINTIFFS exercising their free speech rights, including through blocking PLAINTIFFS' signs, physically touching PLAINTIFFS, and threatening to arrest PLAINTIFFS.

123. PLAINTIFFS seek a preliminary injunction under California Civil Code, section 52.1 and Code of Civil Procedure section 526 during the pendency of this proceeding enjoining DEFENDANTS from further unlawful actions in violation of California Constitution, Article I, section 2, as prayed for below.

PLAINTIFFS also seek a permanent injunction under California Civil Code, section 52.1 and Code of Civil Procedure section 526 enjoining DEFENDANTS from interfering, or attempting to interfere, with PLAINTIFFS' free speech rights through threats, intimidation, or coercion, and from harassing PLAINTIFFS while lawfully engaged in free speech activity.

125. Absent an injunction, DEFENDANTS will be permitted to continue to harass, intimidate, threaten, and interfere with PLAINTIFFS' rights under Article I of the California Constitution.

126. PLAINTIFFS, who have no intention of ending their demonstrations against rodeos at Rowell Ranch Rodeo Park, will be irreparably harmed without the court's intervention.

7 under the First Amendment.

8           132. DEFENDANTS HARD and HART are state actors as they are a governmental

10           133. DEFENDANT DEPUTY MAYFIELD is a state actor as he is a government 24 intervention.

25           138. Monetary damages will only compensate the harm that has been done to 26 PLAINTIFFS in the past, so injunctive relief is necessary to secure the free exercise of their 27 rights in the future.

1           139. Plaintiffs are also entitled to a declaration under 28 U.S.C. § 2201(a) that
2 DEFENDANTS ROWELL RANCH RODEO, INC., DEPUTY MAYFIELD, HARD, and

23 AS AND FOR A SIXTH, SEPARATE AND DISTINCT DEFENSE, DEFENDANT
24 ALLEGES:

EXHIBIT “C”

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

DENIZ BOLBOL, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

ROWELL RANCH RODEO, INC., et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 23-cv-01652-VC

ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

Re: Dkt. No. 28

The motion for a temporary restraining order is denied. This order assumes the reader's familiarity with the facts of the case, the relevant law, and the discussion held at the motion hearing.

While the plaintiffs have shown a likelihood of success on their claim that the defendants (or at least Rowell Ranch) interfered with their free speech rights last year, they have not shown that they are likely to be prevented from meaningfully expressing themselves this year. The emergency motion relies exclusively on evidence from last year's events. While this is not nothing, the plaintiffs themselves have suggested that what happened last year was anomalous—they assert that until last year they regularly demonstrated at the rodeo without any issues. See, e.g., Dkt. No. 28-1 at 6–7. Yet the motion contained no forward-looking evidence, such as representations from the defendants about what the plaintiffs might expect should they attempt to exercise their speech rights in the same manner this year. Indeed, at the hearing, it became apparent that neither the plaintiffs nor their lawyers even attempted to communicate with the defendants about the upcoming rodeo and what sort of treatment they might expect.

The Court therefore ordered the defendants to file sworn declarations explaining in detail what the plaintiffs should expect at this year's rodeo. Those declarations suggest that the defendants are not likely to interfere with the plaintiffs' speech rights this weekend. The Park District's declaration explains that its rangers will not even be at the rodeo and will therefore have "no interaction with protesters who may come to the rodeo event." Dkt. No. 40 at 1. To the extent any allegedly unlawful behavior is reported to the rangers, the rangers have been instructed simply to report it to local law enforcement. Dkt. No. 40 at 2. For its own part, the Sheriff's Office has declared that, while it "will have deputies performing law enforcement duties at the site of the [ ] Rodeo," each deputy will be instructed not to impede the demonstrators' lawful exercise of their speech rights. Dkt. No. 41 at 2.

For its part, Rowell Ranch declares that it has designated a second free speech zone fifteen to twenty feet from the ticket booth closest to the pedestrian entrance to the arena, around where the plaintiffs typically demonstrate. Rowell Ranch further declares that "[d]emonstrators are not limited to the Free Speech Area to hand out their leaflets or engage the attendees" and that its employees "have not been instructed to call any law enforcement department simply because a demonstrator is not demonstrating in a Free Speech Area." Dkt. No. 43 at 2 (emphasis added). According to Rowell Ranch, the cordoned off free speech areas are intended to limit only where the demonstrators may set up tables, tents, or umbrella stands. Dkt. No. 43 at 1–2. The reason for this, Rowell Ranch declares, is to avoid blocking the roadway intended for emergency vehicle traffic. Dkt. No. 43 at 2. Rowell Ranch explains that, while pedestrians have access to the same roadway and may walk on it or across it, it wishes to keep the roadway free of temporary structures, which are less easily or quickly moved out of the way in the event of an emergency. Dkt. No. 39 at 2. As best the Court can discern on this last-minute, emergency posture, this is a sufficiently tailored restriction geared towards a sufficiently important government interest, and so it likely passes constitutional muster. See Cuiello v. City of Oakland, 434 F. App'x 615, 616–17 (9th Cir. 2011) (holding that ten-foot buffer zone from entrance to circus intended to avoid congestion did not violate the plaintiffs' speech rights).

In light of the defendants' declarations and the absence of contrary evidence in the plaintiffs' motion, the plaintiffs have not shown they are likely to succeed on a speech claim based on this year's rodeo. They have therefore also failed to show a likelihood of irreparable harm.

Also weighing heavily against the plaintiffs is the fact that this is an emergency of their own making. The plaintiffs' motion states they have had "longstanding plans" to attend this year's rodeo. Dkt. No. 28-1 at 18. Indeed, it appears they have known for a year that they would be returning to the rodeo this coming weekend. But instead of filing a motion for a preliminary injunction well in advance, the plaintiffs sat on their rights. They filed their underlying complaint in this case on April 6, 2023, and then they waited even longer to move for an emergency restraining order, springing it on the parties and on this Court a mere ten days before the event (which is scheduled to begin today, May 19). And as noted above, the plaintiffs apparently made no effort to communicate with the defendants in advance of filing their "emergency" motion.

While this conduct would be troublesome in any case, it is especially problematic when a court is being asked to assess weighty constitutional claims whose adjudication would benefit from deliberation and possibly an evidentiary hearing. What's more, the plaintiffs have levied their claims against no less than three sets of both public and private defendants, further complicating matters and counseling in favor of careful deliberation. The plaintiffs do not have a right to a temporary restraining order. Relief of this sort is a matter of equity and discretion. Parties seeking this relief have a responsibility to tee up their claims in a timely and responsible fashion. When plaintiffs, intentionally or through gross neglect, sit on their rights only to spring an application for a temporary restraining order on their opponents at the eleventh hour, they risk limiting themselves to recovery of retrospective relief for any violation that occurs. This is so even if the rights the plaintiffs choose to sit on are constitutional in nature. Given the conduct of the plaintiffs in this case, even if they had shown a likelihood that their free speech rights would be infringed this weekend, the Court would likely deny their emergency application for the sole reason that the emergency was created by their own delay.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
